

Beginner Spanish Course
Start Date	First Monday of each month	Schedule	9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Total hours and duration	40hours = two weeks
Requirement	Make qualifying test
Location and address	Varona Building, University Hill, San Lazaro and L.
Coordinator	International Academic Services Office
Program Objectives	After completing the course the student will be able to: Understand phrases and the usual on basic personal and family information, shopping, local area, employment if the speech is articulated clearly and slowly. Read short simple texts, to grasp the idea main advertisements, prospectuses, menus and schedules. May include personal messages and emails. communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities provided the other person is willing to cooperate, repeating what he said, put it another way and a slow speed. You can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on regular. Refer shares present, past and future simply and with a limited vocabulary, to describe his family, people, places and possessions.

Elementary Spanish Course
Start Date	First Monday of each month	Schedule	9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Total hours and duration	40 hours = two weeks
Requirement	Make qualifying test
Location and address	Varona Building, University Hill, San Lazaro and L.
Coordinator	International Academic Services Office
Program Objectives	After completing the course the student will be able to: Understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters everyday-at work, study center and during leisure activities, etc.. Can understand short simple personal letters, emails and faxes. Finding specific, predictable information in simple everyday material such as advertisements, prospectuses, menus and schedules. Identify the main idea of television programs dealing with current affairs or topics of personal interest or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear and there is visual support. communicate in simple and routine tasks, which require a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities that are usually produced during his stay in the country. You can not understand enough to keep the conversation itself, requires repeat or restate any information. Refer shares present, past and future, describe your family and other people, living conditions, education, current or last job he had.

Intermediate Spanish Course
Start Date	First Monday of each month	Schedule	9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Total hours and duration	40 hours = Two weeks
Requirement	Make qualifying test
Location and address	Varona Building, University Hill, San Lazaro and L.
Coordinator	International Academic Services Office
Program Objectives	After completing the course the student will be able to: Understand the speech at a normal pace in which addresses known issues. Identify the main point of many radio and television current affairs or deal with issues of personal or professional interest. understand texts written in a language of high frequency everyday work-related, current affairs, matters of professional interest: the description of events, feelings and desires. Communicate in more complex tasks and exchanges on current issues, matters of professional interest: to explain, argue and justify their opinions and plans. Function in situations that arise during the stay in place where the language is spoken, enter unprepared into conversation. Telling a story / anecdote, the plot of a book or film and describe their reactions. Refer shares present, past and future, in which to express hypotheses, possibilities, feelings, desires, moods.

Spanish Advanced Level Course
Start Date	First Monday of each month	Schedule	9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Total hours and duration	40 hours = two weeks
Requirement	Make qualifying test
Location and address	Varona Building, University Hill, San Lazaro and L.
Coordinator	International Academic Services Office
Program Objectives	After completing the course the student will be able to: Understand speeches, lectures, news radio, television, other current affairs programs, follow complex lines of argument provided the topic is known. Read articles, reports, essays on contemporary issues in which the writers adopt particular positions or viewpoints, contemporary prose and poetry. Participate in a conversation with fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers, participate in discussion in familiar contexts in which he explains, argues justifies, defends his views.

Superior Spanish Course Level
Start Date	First Monday of each month	Schedule	9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Total hours and duration	40 hours = two weeks
Requirement	Make qualifying test
Location and address	Varona Building, University Hill, San Lazaro and L.
Coordinator	International Academic Services Office
Program Objectives	After completing the course the student will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> understand extended speech even when not clearly structured and when relationships are implied, without too much effort to understand television, radio and movies. I can understand long and complex factual and literary or based on facts, appreciate the distinctions of style, specialized articles and longer technical instructions, even if not related to their specialty. express themselves fluently and use the language flexibly and effectively for social and professional, formulate ideas and opinions precision and relate adequately their interventions with those of other speakers. Make clear, detailed descriptions of complex subjects integrating sub-themes, developing particular points and concluding appropriately 		